

This study focuses on the different genres and literary devices the Gospel writers used to tell the story of Jesus. Recognizing and understanding those genres and devices will greatly enhance your study of Scripture.

Consider highlighting each one with a different colored pencil as you read the Gospels. Use the list below to keep track of which color you're using for each.

Narrative

Metaphor

Parable

Hyperbole

Commandment

Blessing

Contradiction

Aphorism

Dialogue

Prophecy