

How to Find the Women's Event For You

I want to be encouraged to grow spiritually through Bible teaching.

I like hearing from multiple speakers.

I like spending time learning from one teacher.

I want to go to a smaller training event in my region.

I want encouragement, worship, and to meet other women. Variety is key!

I want to be equipped by trusted women to thrive where God has me.

YOU LEAD

I want to study the Bible in its cultural and historical context.

I want to spend time in prayer, hear powerful teaching, and worship God.

I want to experience a live event in person and with a diverse group of women in the room.

I want to experience the richness of the event from my home or church.

I want to go to a national training event with ministry leaders from around the nation.

Feast
KRISTI MCLELLAND

I'll go in person! I can even bring a group from my church and plan a girls' trip!

I want to experience the event from where I am. I can watch with a small group or see if my church is hosting.
